

MERITORIOUS

“Building strong professional networks is key to post-service success, and Meritorious leads the way.

Our partnership with NVBDC helps expand vital resources to the military-connected community.”

– Katherine Kostreva, Co-founder, Meritorious

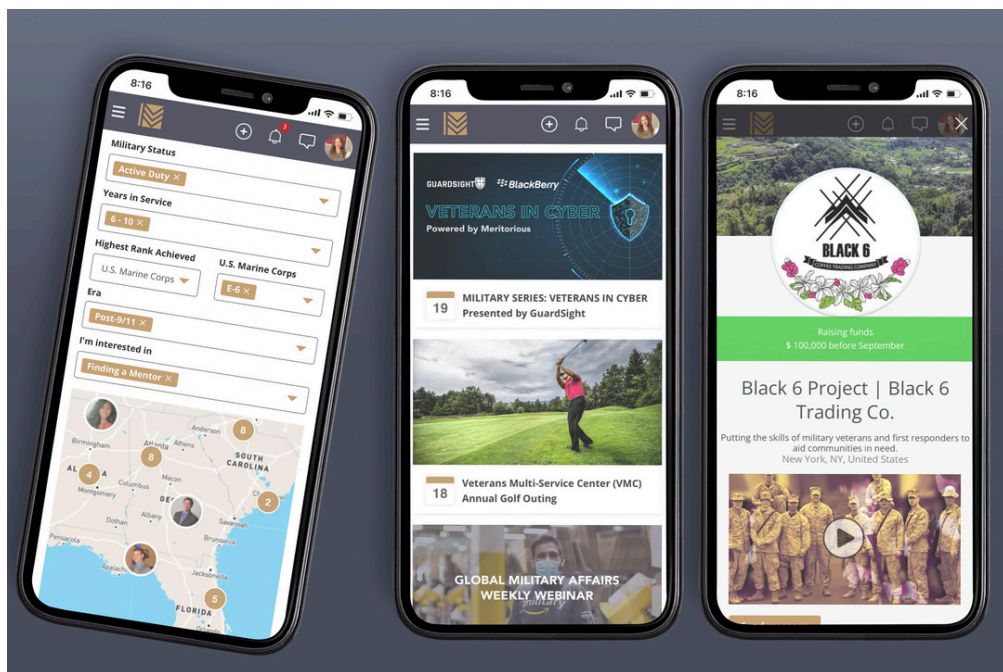

Katherine Kostreva and Ryan Loya were behind TAP reform that now requires transitioning service members to start TAP plans one year prior to End of Active Service. Photo: Gerard H. Gaskin, Military Times.

LEARN MORE

A PLATFORM DESIGNED FOR VETERAN BUSINESS AND CAREER GROWTH

Meritorious features include military-focused profile filters, mentorship module, small business hub, and more networking tools designed for veterans and spouses.

Meritorious is a tech-enabled platform redefining how veterans, military spouses, and their support networks connect, grow, and succeed after service. Members can create detailed profiles to showcase their expertise, interests, and career aspirations while accessing tools to grow their businesses, expand professional connections, and thrive in post-service life. With features like a social feed, member directory, mentorship module, small business hub, careers module, events calendar, mobile app, and direct messaging capabilities, Meritorious ensures ease of use and meaningful engagement across industries and locations.

Meritorious and the Meritorious Foundation are proud partners of the U.S. Department of Labor’s Veterans’ Employment and Training Service (VETS) Employment Navigator and Partnership Program. As part of the expanded Transition Assistance Program (TAP), transitioning service members and their spouses at 38+ military installations worldwide are now referred to Meritorious for on-demand access to resources that support their career and business goals.

Designed to address the evolving needs of the military-connected community, the Meritorious platform features several opportunities for users to connect with mentors and industry-specific networking sessions, such as "Mentor Connect," "Transition Circles" workshops, the Small Business Hub for veteran entrepreneurs, and "Small Business Circles."

Meritorious also excels in creating customized micro-communities, delivering engagement and measurable ROI beyond traditional social media groups. Communities can be personalized to unite stakeholders within specific industries, support nonprofits in maintaining continuity of care for their beneficiaries, or enhance engagement between members of Employee Resource Groups, among other use cases.

Whether a transitioning service member, military spouse, veteran entrepreneur, or advocate, Meritorious offers unparalleled opportunities to connect, learn, and grow.

Visit meritorious.us to learn more and join for free.